

Shoshone-Bannock Tribes
TRIBAL PREVAILING WAGE SCALE - COMMERCIAL & BUILDING

EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2009

The Tribes' Prevailing Wage Scale shall apply to all residential, commercial, heavy and highway construction that occurs within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation.

* This scale may change without notice due to geographical market trends or cost of living allowances.

Commercial & Building Construction (other than residential)
Classification	Wage Rate	Training Fee
Asbestos Worker	$ 26.67	$0.50
Boilermaker	$ 25.47	$0.50
Bricklayer	$ 20.03	$0.50
Carpenter	$ 19.46	$0.50
Cement mason/finisher	$ 14.00	$0.50
Drywall taper/finisher	$ 18.04	$0.50
Electrician	$ 24.37	$0.50
Ironworker	$ 22.92	$0.50
Laborer - concrete & rebar	$ 11.27
Laborer - general	$ 12.12
Laborer - pipelayer	$ 13.10
Roofer	$ 18.00	$0.50
Painter	$ 13.30	$0.50
Pipefitter/Welder/Plumber	$ 22.20	$0.50
Insulation Installer/Applicator	$ 12.89	$0.50
Sheetmetal	$ 17.94	$0.50
HEO - backhoe	$ 18.11	$0.50
HEO - blade/grader	$ 18.11	$0.50
HEO - bulldozer	$ 18.11	$0.50
HEO - crane	$ 20.44	$0.50
HEO - Excavator	$ 18.11	$0.50
HEO - loader	$ 18.11	$0.50
HEO - roller	$ 18.11	$0.50
Truck Driver, dump, flat-bed, transport, water, fuel, oil	$ 16.39	$0.50

The Shoshone-Bannock Tribes have an accredited Bureau of Apprenticeship Training Program. Contractors and TERO Covered-Employers shall participate in the Tribes' BAT Program. Entities with Collective Bargaining Agreements with Unions may use their apprenticeship programs, so long as an agreement from said union is made to utilize Indian apprentices on tribal projects.

Reference: 2008 TERO Ordinance, Section 402, Powers of the Commission

Shoshone-Bannock Tribes
TRIBAL PREVAILING WAGE SCALE - RESIDENTIAL

EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2009

occurs within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation.

* This scale may change without notice due to geographical market trends or cost of living allowances.

Residential Construction (single family units including apartments up to 4 stories)
Classification	Wage Rate	Training Fee
Bricklayer	15.11	$0.50
Carpenter	15.73	$0.50
Cement mason	13.33	$0.50
Drywall hanger	11.09	$0.50
Electrician	17.6	$0.50
Flooring Installer	18.17	$0.50
Insulation Installer	14.17	$0.50
Laborer	8.88
Painter	13.3	$0.50
Plumber	18.1	$0.50
Roofer	12.46	$0.50
Sheetmetal	16.08	$0.50
Truck Driver	11.09	$0.50

The Shoshone-Bannock Tribes have an accredited Bureau of Apprenticeship Training Program. Contractors and TERO Covered-Employers shall participate in the Tribes' BAT Program. Entities with Collective Bargaining Agreements with Unions may use their apprenticeship programs, so long as an agreement from said union is made to utilize Indian apprentices on tribal projects.

Reference: 2008 TERO Ordinance, Section 402, Powers of the Commission

Shoshone-Bannock Tribes
TRIBAL PREVAILING WAGE SCALE - HEAVY/HIGHWAY

EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2009

The Tribes' Prevailing Wage Scale shall apply to all residential, commercial, heavy and highway construction that occurs within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation.

* This scale may change without notice due to geographical market trends or cost of living allowances.

Heavy & Highway Construction
Classification	Wage Rate	Training Fee
Carpenter, including concrete forms, drywall hanging & metal stud framing	$ 21.90	$0.50
Electrician	$ 23.54	$0.50
HEO - backhoe	$ 22.20	$0.50
HEO - blade/grader	$ 22.20	$0.50
HEO - bulldozer	$ 22.20	$0.50
HEO - crane	$ 23.28	$0.50
HEO - excavator	$ 21.61	$0.50
HEO - loader	$ 21.61	$0.50
HEO - roller	$ 21.61	$0.50
HEO - scraper	$ 22.20	$0.50
HEO - screed, oiler	$ 21.61	$0.50
Ironworker	$ 22.92	$0.50
Laborer - fence, guardrail, asphalt raker & jackhammer	$ 17.13
Laborer - general	$ 18.41
Laborer - pipelayer	$ 14.69
Painter (traffic control, striper)	$ 20.81	$0.50
Pipefitter/Welder/Industrial Plumber	$ 21.25	$0.50
Truck Driver, dump, flat-bed, transport, water, fuel, oil	$ 20.00	$0.50

The Shoshone-Bannock Tribes have an accredited Bureau of Apprenticeship Training Program. Contractors and TERO Covered-Employers shall participate in the Tribes' BAT Program. Entities with Collective Bargaining Agreements with Unions may use their apprenticeship programs, so long as an agreement from said union is made to utilize Indian apprentices on tribal projects.

Reference: 2008 TERO Ordinance, Section 402, Powers of the Commission